ENTRY RULES FOR TEAMS

1. What do we mean by Curry cooking Teams

If you are a cooking fan, but this is not your profession, get your team organized for the 5th BCCL Curry Cook-off! Your team should consist from 2 persons. Maximum number of teams we will accept is 8. The teams will be registered as first come first served with a priority given to BCCL members. Team entries are accepted no later than June 15th. The following information is required when registering your team:

- The name of your team and names of your 2 team members;
- The name of your 2nd free choice Indian curry dish you are going to make;

2. Who can take part as a Team?

The chamber members (priority) or friends or any curry fans - local or expats are invited to take part in this 5th Indian Curry cooking contest, popular all over the world! It should be fun cooking in your mini teams and presenting your masterpieces to the Judges.

3. What Curry dishes to make?

As this is an Indian Curry cooking contest, each from the teams will be requested to make 2 different Indian curry dishes. The one must be Chicken Tikka Masala and another one must be a free choice from your most favorite Indian curry dishes. The quantity is 10 portions of each curry. The teams are requested to use their own products and spices to prepare the curry dishes and present them in warming stations in the final contest at the Residence. Rice and Nan bread will be arranged by the chamber.

The warming stations (marmitai) can be rented out either from UAB Sangaida Mob. 868239849 or you may find well be able to find who could lend them for you. Please contact the chamber if you need the chamber to help you with more information.

4. Equipment

The Curry Cook-Off partner Čiop Čiop culinary loft (address: Žvejų str. 2, Vilnius) will be kindly providing all the cooking equipment and the dishes needed for 6 teams to pre-cook their curry dishes on the event day from 12.00 till 16.30 hours. The fully prepared dishes must be kept in warming stations and delivered to the ČIOP ČIOP rooftop terrace (Žalgirio str. 135) no later than 17.15 to leave enough time to settle everything before the guests start arriving to the event starting from 18:00. The teams are responsible for renting the warming stations either from UAB Sangaida Mob. 868239849 or you may have your own contacts for that. Please contact the chamber if you need the chamber to help you with more information.

5. Presenting Curry dishes at the event and Judging

At the Ciop Ciop roof terrace, where the 5th Curry Cook-off event will take place, all the teams will have to be prepared to present their curry dishes and serve their curries by standing behind the warming stations. Each of the Team is requested to have a clear information sign with name of their team and names of both dishes they've prepared. 3 Judges (Names to be confirmed later) will be coming to the teams, asking various questions relating their dishes and tasting them. After that, they will provide their verdict on the best 3 curries. The final decision will be made based on the taste and presentation of the dishes. The public will be tasting after the Judges and voting for the best „audience choice“ curry as well.

5. Awards

1st Best Indian Curry

2nd Best Indian Curry

3rd Best Indian Curry

Audience choice Indian Curry

All awards will be presented with the diplomas and special prizes kindly established by the Sponsors (to be announced later).
